

Fraction of the population to be closed under normal approximation

